SEVEN WAYS TO IMPROVE YOUR SCHOOL.

1—Post on some sort of school bulletin board the average grades of your students each week.

2—Arrange to have your local newspaper print each month the names of those making a grade of 90 or over.

3—Post a list of students who have not been tardy or missed a day for a week; for a month; two months; three months, and so on through the whole school year. Also have your local newspaper print these lists monthly.

4—Have "tripping" in your spelling classes, organize a debating society also, and arrange for a series of spelling matches and debates with neighboring schools, getting the parents to attend.

5—Give out cards each month to students who have been on time each morning, who have not missed a day, who have given good deportment and who have made above a certain standard average grade. For example:
"This is to certify that James Brown has not been absent or tardy during the month of October, that he has given good deportment, and has made an average grade of 90."

6—Devote each Friday afternoon to recitations, songs, debates, exhibits, etc., giving nominal prizes to the boys and girls who do best. Invite the patrons of the school to attend these exercises once each month and try to develop their interest.

7—See the local merchants near your school and get them to give prizes. They will be glad to do so in most cases.—The Progressive Farmer.
